Constituency Conference Held At Champion June 8

The 47th Annual Conference of the Little Bow Constituency Women's Institutes was held in the Champion Community Hall on Tuesday, June 8. Mrs. F. L. Little of Champion, Constituency Convener, presided.

The conference opened at 10 a.m. and Mrs. Little, on behalf of the Mayor, brought greetings from the Village of Champion.

Good Deeds Women's Institute, co-hostess with Champion Women's Institute, welcomed Mrs. Newman, District Director and the others who were present.

Mrs. Bill Murray on behalf of Kirkcaldy Women's Institute and the other Branches thanked the hostesses for the invitation.

Mrs. Little spoke only briefly at this time, saying the theme of the Conference was "Peace"; with so much talk of conflict in the world today, we should think of what we can do to offset this; if we live by the Women's Institute Creed we can do much toward this. Live our everyday lives the best we can and keep the vision before us.

Mrs. Little then introduced Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Andrew Dunipace, Conference Secretary and Mrs. A. E. Howerton, press representative.

Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Little and Mrs. Dunipace were presented with corsages.

The judges of the handicraft and baking, Miss Bartman and Mrs. Weintraub were introduced to the ladies.

The following Committees were appointed by Mrs. Little: Courtesy: Mrs. French, Reid Hill; Mrs. A. Malsey, Kirkcaldy. Nominations: Mrs. Brown, Good Deeds; Mrs. Hollister, Kirkcaldy. Resolutions: Mrs. Malsey, Kirkcaldy; Mrs. H. Ferguson, Champion.

The following read Secretaries reports: Mrs. John Andrews, Thigh Hill; Mrs. Hutton, Good Deeds; Mrs. Comstock, Kirkcaldy; Mrs. Slater, Barons; Mrs. Hunzinger, Champion; Mrs. John French, Reid Hill.

Mrs. Dunipace read a report on Handicraft, prepared by Mrs. W. O. McLeod.

Mrs. Bill Murray, Kirkcaldy read a report on Health, which dealt with children and poisons.

Mrs. Comstock's Agriculture report was interesting and different, inasmuch as it dealt with gardening in Alaska.

Mrs. Newman spoke briefly and appealed to the ladies to report regularly to the Constituency Convener, any of their activities, however informally they were carried out. She stressed the United Nations and said this was a most interesting subject to follow up.

Mrs. Newman offered suggestions on collecting for the Cancer Fund. She congratulated the Branches for the attention shown to the residents. (Continued On Back Page)

MARGARET ANNE JAMISON

Margaret Anne Jamison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jamison of Vulcan, received her Senior Matriculation at County Central High School. She entered the department of music at the University of Alberta, Calgary, two years ago and plans to study at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, next year, where she hopes to graduate with her Bachelor of Music degree.

Miss Jamison will appear in a concert of classical music at the high school auditorium this Friday night. The concert is sponsored by United Church Couples Club.

Margaret Anne studied piano with Miss L. Alexander of Nanton for six years, during which time she received an honors standing in Grade Ten piano, second highest in the south. In Calgary, her musical studies were conducted under the noted musician, Dr. Gladys Egbert. This month she will endeavor to attain her ARCT.

She was United Church organist in Vulcan for two years. Her musical experience was enriched by competitions in festivals, where she received high standing.

During her university course, she has received instruction in clarinet, her minor instrument, from Dr. S. G. Finn, Associate Professor of Music. Under his direction, the Musicians and Actor's Club presented the play, Luther, in which Margaret Anne took part, by providing organ background.

Her student career has been marked by such activities as membership as clarinetist in the UAC band. She has also worked as Miss Gwyneth Roberts' accompanist throughout the year.

Margaret Anne has consistently achieved first class standing in piano. She intends to obtain her Master of Music at Indiana University.

So often we overlook the important while attending to the urgent.

Conditions Excellent

Crop Prospects Improved By Rains This Week

Reports from 13 agents of the Alberta Wheat Pool at various points in the County of Vulcan, dated June 11, all show crop conditions as at that date to be 90 to 100 per cent of normal. Most also mentioned in their reports that a good general rain "within the next week" would be welcomed and, with warm weather to speed up crop growth conditions would generally be excellent.

Well, the rain came. Following 90 above temperatures on Friday, showers of up to one-half inch of rain fell in most parts of the county on Saturday. Sunday and Monday remained cloudy and cool but a fairly steady and at times very heavy rain fell most of Monday night and all day Tuesday and was reported to be fairly general. At Vulcan, the Wheat Pool reports .35 of an inch Saturday and Sunday and 1.82 Monday night and Tuesday up to 5:00 p.m., and still raining.

Prior to the rain, farmers were summerfallowing and spraying for weeds. Crops are a little later than normal and with moisture conditions now very good warm weather would help speed crop growth.

The crop reports show average height of grain on June 11 at from 3 to 5.75 inches. A little wind damage is reported at Queenstown; Peacock Sliding reports fall rye to be heading out.

Next week's reports should have some interesting figures on rainfall.

Shower Honors Charlotte Earl

A miscellaneous shower was held in St. Andrew's Parish Hall on Thursday, June 3, in honor of Miss Charlotte Earl, bride-elect of June 19.

A beautifully decorated bride's cake centred the table where the guest of honor was seated with her mother, Mrs. Vic Earl and the groom's mother, Mrs. L. Brinton. Mrs. Holm and daughter Linda pinned the bows on hats — one for the bride and the other for the groom. These, Charlotte modelled. Mrs. Alberta Earl was in charge of the bride's book, a gift from the hostesses. The gifts were presented in a shopping cart labelled, Bridal Specials.

Charlotte's life was portrayed in booklets made by the guests and also by models representing various stages in the bride's future life.

The guest of honor expressed her appreciation of the lovely gifts and the shower.

Regular Meeting Keystone Class

The June meeting of the Keystone Class was held at the home of Mrs. Chloe Marshall.

Despite the stormy day 16 members answered the roll call by naming their favorite disciple. The minutes were read and approved. Ten dollars was voted to help a graduate of the Bible School establish a missionary in Jamaica. Ten dollars was voted to help support the Men's Retreat at Pine Lake.

Cards were sent to Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Hampton who are in hospital. Mrs. Angela Wismer gave a talk on Wm. Rees life and work in Hong Kong. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Elsey Hollister on July 8.

The meeting closed with a song, Fisher's of Men, followed by prayer and lunch.

CDA approved $25 million worth of poultry processing plant construction in 1964.

Local Minister Urges Support Of Clothing Centre

The Anglican Ladies Guild met at the home of Mrs. Ron Buehler with the Rev. Cowell and 14 members present.

Tentative plans were made for the Rummage Sale in October and the Christmas Tea & Bazaar in November. Mrs. Sansome will again have a doll and complete wardrobe for sale.

The Rev. Cowell urged the mothers to bring their children to Church through the summer while Sunday School is closed. He also noted that Pete Schuler is in charge of arranging cars for the Senior Citizens of Peter Dawson Lodge who wish to come to Church on Sunday.

Rev. Cowell expressed the urgent need for used clothing for young children and men to be sent to the Anglican Clothing Bank in Calgary. This Clothing Centre is open to anyone in need. All items may be left at the home of Mrs. Bill Babuk.

At the close of the meeting a gay social hour was spent at which time a Maple Leaf brooch was presented to Mrs. Laycock, Mrs. Doris Mays and her sister Mrs. Williams who are traveling to England on a visit. Rev. Cowell asked for God's blessing for a safe and happy journey for them all.

The next meeting will be held Sept. 15 in the church basement.

Concert Rained Out... Try Again Sat.

The first of the three Saturday afternoon outside concerts by the Vulcan County Band last week-end lost out to afternoon showers.

Rain began falling at noon and at 2:30 when the band was assembled ready to go the showers became heavier. The band platform located in front of the Vulcan Hotel was unprotected. A quick call to the Peter Dawson Lodge found a ready audience indoors for the band whose intentions were to play there hoping the rain would let up sufficiently to let them gather under store awnings for a later program.

This cold and wet weather gave a touch of the extremes to the band whose trip the previous day to the Brooks Rodeo parade was under cloudless skies and close to 90 degrees temperatures. The band was quite impressed with its performance and were quite impressed with the Brooks and many who had visited in years past were surprised with the growth that has taken place.

Undaunted, the band is coming out in double strength this Saturday to help make amends for last weekend. One good natured band supporter suggested holding band concerts Wednesdays in hopes of being rained out but possibly improving the pattern of weekend weather. In any case both junior and senior bands will be appearing on Saturday; the juniors from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. and the senior group from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. This later hour for the senior program is set so that spectators taking in the Vulcan District 4-H Calf Show and Sale will be able to hear at least one band at its conclusion.

As a bonus to the bandmen, Stu Joiner of Central Meat Market has invited them to his restaurant at the 3-Way Service Station for refreshments following the concert. Another outdoor concert is planned for Saturday, June 26 and on July 3 the band may appear at a Shopping Centre promotion in Calgary.

FROM THE LEGISLATURE

By J. Wally Strang

While the political pot continues to simmer here in the capital city with various rumours about who is going to make a bid for the leadership of the Liberal party, one thing appears certain. The government couldn't care less whether its Mike Maccagno, Bill Hawrelak, Bill Dickie or your next door neighbor.

The lull in activity right now certainly seems to indicate that either the opposition is afraid to name a man for fear they put a good head on the chopping block, or the government is so cock-sure of themselves that they have killed the desire of the opposition to get in and fight. One thing we might be sure of is the fact that no matter who takes over the leadership of the Liberal party, unless they become better organized in their own house... they will never penetrate the sacred stronghold.

FARMER'S DAY

Have been trying to figure out why we hold an annual Farmer's Day in Alberta. I would be the first to agree that we urban dwellers should once in a while stop and think about the farmer and the role he plays in our economy. Besides being the backbone, plus the heart and soul of the province, agriculture can only continue to go forward with the guidance of the farmer.

But how do we pay our respects to these men? Do we put out our city welcome mat? Does the province come forward and declare some sort of dividend that would benefit the farmer and encourage him to produce even more? Is there any overall exposure of gratitude from anyone?

It seems like Farmer's Day has fallen deep into the clutches of commercialism. The shop keepers love to rub their grubby little hands and take the farmer's hard earned cash... but does he say that because it's Farmer's Day... and because the farmer patronizes him all year that today he will give a 25 per cent discount. And why doesn't the province make it an annual occasion to make a major announcement, like an increase or (believe it or not) a decrease in taxes.

This would not only be something for the farmers to look forward to... it would make the entire province look forward to Farmer's Day. But I suppose, as long as the children get a holiday its worth following tradition even if it does become a commercial farce.

CENTENNIAL HULABALOO

When the minister of public works, Fred Colborne, announced that it was the intention of the province to build a centennial pylon with an exclusive restaurant on top in one of Edmonton's better residential district... the residents got up in arms... and protested.

Calgary in the meantime jumped on the bandwagon and has made a bid for the Pylon. While this should be the end of the story, it's not. Look for a change in Edmontonian's hearts... while they may be dead beats who may be long in their own centennial museum... there are enough young progressive newcomers to force the issue, even if it means a restaurant in a tree house.

Preventive care and treatment is a major contributing factor to the high standard of public health Albertans enjoy. Your Department of Public Health maintains diagnostic and treatment clinics for cancer, cerebral palsy, mental health, rheumatoid arthritis, social hygiene and tuberculosis.

The Department co-operates with, and assists financially, local Health Units and city Health Departments throughout the province to provide services to infants and pre-school children . . . school health programs . . . investigation of outbreaks of communicable diseases . . . immunization of all age groups for whooping cough, diphtheria, poliomyelitis, tetanus and smallpox . . . supervision of community sanitation . . . pollution control . . . and health education programs.

The estimated cost to maintain this program of preventive care and treatment this year amounts to $126,326,000 — 25¢ per day for every man, woman and child in Alberta. A small price to pay compared to the high cost of care.

And when illness does strike, Albertans find it comforting to know that they can receive the finest hospital care for a maximum of $2.00 per day.

Eight foot oil gauge on 800-gallon calibration tank at Peerless Wood Preservers Plant. Each inch represents 10 gallons. By applying high pressure air into the top of the tank (which is connected with the treating cylinder), oil-borne penta is forced out of the tank and into the cylinder. At this stage of the treating process the wood in the cylinder is already completely surrounded with oil which has been heated to a minimum of 190 degrees F. and which carries the penta. As air-pressure displaces the oil it has nowhere else to go but into the wood itself. The gauge shows the operator the exact amount of oil-borne penta being forced into the wood.

Only pressure treating ensures the customer of posts and poles that will withstand the ravages of rot and decay.

There's fun and games at these gymkhana affairs whether you're speaking of the Vulcan group, Lake McGregor or Arrowwood gymkhana associations, and sometimes a parade is thrown in for good measure. Above are members of the Vulcan Light Horse Association as they wound through downtown streets prior to their first gymkhana of the season recently. At left Morley Scobie hollered out that this was his wife's first horseback ride but from the way he sat his saddle it wasn't clear whether he was speaking of himself or Jean. In the next photo are Marie Detta, Dwight Fisher, Billy Loose and Kathy Andrews, Mary Lou and Winkie Giles are in the third photo. Two of the Christensen horse family, Ruth and Norma, are shown next managing to stay aloft amid car horns and shouts of encouragement from bystanders. Gymkhanas and trail rides will continue this summer.

Gordon Goldhawk and Earl Mote set the pace musically for the gymkhana parade with a snare and bass drum tattoo but their enjoyment of things was somewhat marred by fears of being run down by the lively horses behind them.

WOLFE'S HARDWARE

9th Anniversary Summer SALE!

We're celebrating the ninth year since joining Link Hardware Co. Ltd. as a charter member. To commemorate these nine years of service, Link Stores in Southern Alberta are sponsoring a Summer Contest with many exciting prizes. Listen for details over CFAC radio station and register on an entry form at Wolfe's Hardware.

LINK HARDWARE CO. LTD.

A recent news release in the Calgary Herald told of the formation of United Hardware Wholesalers Ltd., which has now become one of Canada's largest hardware operations. The new company represents the buying arm of four Canadian wholesale firms — one each in Alberta, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec — with sales this year expected to exceed $26,000,000. Head office of the new firm will be in Calgary at the location of the Link Hardware Co. Ltd.

Link Hardware is an association of over 100 successful, independently-owned hardware stores in Saskatchewan, Alberta and B.C., supporting their own dealer-owned wholesale in Calgary. Under a "Link" franchise, the local dealer shares in the greatest possible group buying power and can secure goods from any manufacturer. In effect, a Link member store buys directly from the producer through the non-profit member wholesale, thereby eliminating middle-men and allowing a cut in costs of operation. This feature means greater benefits to shoppers and customers.

Link Hardware Co. had its beginning back in 1956 when the original members of the Link Hardware group used to meet every week in Calgary. Here, they would make up their group orders, uncrate and sort out incoming shipments, haggle over who should pay for what, load up their supplies in the rear of their station-wagons, and struggle off for home — dead tired in the early hours of the next morning, and then lie awake with nightmares wondering where in their stores to put all the new stock. Fortunately, this organization has been streamlined over the past nine years. No more weekly meetings — now only three or four stream-lined get-togethers in a year (and with the wives generally present) and with factory-manufacturers setting up gala merchandise display-exhibits.

Link started their joint-warehousing operation in the rear-shed of Geo. Webber's hardware store in Calgary. Since 1956, they have outgrown this shed and also three larger warehouses in Calgary. Finally, in 1962 some of the members banded together again and bought their present huge warehouse (located on a 5-acre site) in the Manchester industrial area of Calgary. This new warehouse is staffed by their managing-director, his assistant, a large office staff of cheery girls headed by Mrs. Shirley Fletcher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burgess of this district and then in the hardware area you will find a warehouse-foreman and his staff of eight men. 1964 saw the opening of another large branch-warehouse in the city of Vancouver and in 1965 a new branch has opened in Edmonton.

What are the advantages of an Independent Retail Store today? Firstly is the pride in local ownership and the employing of local personnel. Take away from our community your locally owned and operated businesses — take away the employers and their employees — and then take a look at your town's business and property tax roll. It would be a drastically reduced figure. Local employers and their employees also add greatly to the material strength of the town and rural community. They advertise in our home paper, they patronize other local stores, they are members of community organizations and churches and support community projects. The independent Businessman is his own boss and has the freedom to deal with each customer and treat him as a personality and a friend. He isn't faced with the pressure of red tape and head office rules, regulations and quotas and is glad and proud to be an Independent Merchant.

Students Of Brant School Win Farm Safety Essay Competition

Attractive enamelled lapel pins were awarded to 95 Alberta students this month for their winning entries in the Farm Safety Essay Competition, sponsored each year by the Alberta Safety Council. The competition is open to pupils of grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 in the rural schools of the province.

Division prizes are given for the best essay from grades 5 and 6 and for the best essay from grades 7 and 8. Permanent record of the pupil's achievement is offered in the form of a hand-lettered certificate mounted on a hardwood plaque for the schoolroom. Subject of the 1965 essay contest was "Traffic Safety."

In the County of Vulcan No. 2, the best essay from grades 5 and 6 was written by Wendy Hunter of Brant school and in grades 7 and 8 the winner was Paulette Eliuk, also of the Brant school. They receive the hardwood plaques and lapel pins. Their prize-winning essays are printed below.

— TRAFFIC SAFETY —

(By Wendy Hunter, Grade 6, Brant School. Teacher: Miss Thorp)

Barry Burns was outside, proudly surveying his new Honda. His dad had just filled it with gas and the whole family was out to see him off on his first ride.

"Now you be extremely careful," his mother anxiously warned him for the tenth time. "Watch for signals and obey traffic rules." "Okay, okay," Barry assured her, eager to be off. He jumped on his scooter, turned the ignition key, and amid cheers sped down the street.

"This is like flying," Barry thought. "Are the boys in the gang ever going to be jealous?"

A corner loomed up in the distance. "Now for some fun!" Barry said to himself. "I'll zip around the corner, full speed ahead." There was a stop sign but he gave it no heed.

Unexpectedly a truck zoomed across the intersection. Barry slammed on the brakes but it was too late. There was splintering crash and the crowds thronged around the traffic wreck. Soon the police and the ambulance came roaring up. The truck was in flames as well as the scooter. The man in the truck was not seriously injured but Barry was crippled for life.

If Barry had stopped at the stop sign the accident would not have occurred. Take this as a warning!

— TRAFFIC SAFETY —

(By Paulette Eliuk, Grade 7, Brant School. Teacher: Mrs. I. Ball)

Billy was a daredevil. Never did he realize that he was risking his life by hanging onto fenders when the cars were in motion.

Very frequently his mother warned him not to perform such stunts. Billy shrugged his shoulders and murmured, "You're just an old fuss-budget, Mom."

"Maybe I am but you wait . . ." she left it at that and walked away.

One night Billy's father drove him to a theatre to celebrate a birthday with some friends. Eleven-thirty was the closing time of the show and Billy was supposed to arrive home with Mr. Sullivan. However, Billy had other ideas. Just as everyone was leaving for home he caught onto the fender of a white convertible. It wasn't easy keeping hold, but Billy managed until they arrived at the main highway. There he swung off the automobile as it turned in the opposite direction from that which he wanted to go. He was a bit stunned but stood at the edge of the road until he had a chance to jump onto another car. At home Billy's parents were worried about him, for everyone had arrived home a half hour earlier.

At a quarter after twelve Billy staggered in with blood gushing from his forehead and side. His mother froze in terror, but his father phoned for an ambulance which rushed him to the hospital. Billy is blind now because when he leaped for the second car he missed, sliding violently to the earth. The blow damaged his eyes.

Don't you make the same mistake he did. Your fate might be worse.

You do . . . as one of a half-million Albertans linked with the AGT system who demand, and get the finest service at rates among the lowest in the nation. You do . . . as a citizen of Alberta, because AGT's record-breaking expansion program is giving a boost to Alberta's economy. But specifically . . . what are some of the benefits you receive as a telephone subscriber?

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING

By the end of 1965 AGT will have provided fast, convenient Direct Distance Dialing to 65 Alberta communities.

MORE DEPENDABLE, FASTER TELEPHONE SERVICE

This year a further 39 exchanges will be converted to dial telephones to speed service and improve efficiency.

Since 1945 AGT has invested over $200 million in new and improved services. These construction dollars pouring into Alberta's economy mean more telephone jobs and more jobs for supporting industries. They contribute to the prosperity of Alberta and of every community AGT serves. Because of this continuing policy of expansion and improvement, the value of your telephone service has never been greater.

INSTALLATION OF UNDERGROUND CABLES

During 1965 your telephone company will place 8,000 miles of cable underground — out of the elements and out of trouble.

ADDITIONAL MICROWAVE SERVICE

To handle the ever-growing number of long distance calls AGT will spend $4,000,000 in micro-wave construction in 1965.

Carmangay Is New Home For Recent Bride

Yellow and green was the color scheme for the wedding of Linda Dumka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dumka of Vulcan to Andrew Scotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Scotter of Carmangay on March 13.

The bride entered St. Aldhelm's Church on the arm of her father wearing floor length gown of white organza and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Rev. Victor Cowell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Carolyn Dumka, maid of honor and sister of the bride wore a yellow organza and lace waltz length gown. Lynn Drummond and Marilyn Dumka wore similar style dresses in pale green. Each attendant carried bouquets of carnations. Little Debbie Dumka carried a basket of yellow and white baby mums to match her yellow net over taffeta frock.

Mrs. Tabor, grandmother of the bride played The Wedding March and accompanied two soloists, Mrs. Betty Johnston of Vulcan and Mrs. Mary Goddard of Calgary. Ushers were Don Dumka of Vulcan and Denis Burke of Carmangay. The best man was Albert Browse of Mossleigh.

The mother of the bride wore a pale green wool dress with beige accessories and corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a turquoise wool suit with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

St. Aldhelm's Guild ladies served a delicious dinner to over 100 guests at the IOOF hall. Miss Margo Snow was in charge of the guest book.

Ken McLaughlin of Red Deer was master of ceremonies. Toast to the bride was proposed by Commodore Allen of Vulcan. The guests were entertained by several delightful piano numbers played by the nimble fingers of Bill Tompkins. Out of town guests were from Lethbridge, Carmangay, Cluny, Calgary, Carlsbad, Banff, Tilley and Ottawa.

Following the dinner, a reception was held at the bride's home and white accessories and a corsage of later in the evening a wedding dance was held at the hall in Carmangay.

The bride and groom are now residing in Carmangay.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Scotter flew to London Ontario, Niagara Falls and Ottawa for their honeymoon. For travelling the bride

CANADA'S NEW LABOUR CODE Hon. Allan MacEachen, Minister of Labour, answers some questions:

"Our new Canada Labour Code has been called a 'first,' Mr. MacEachen. Would you agree?"

"Briefly, who does this new Code apply to?"

"Let's get down to specifics. What, exactly, does it promise to those employees who are affected by it?"

"You said the new Code applies to industries under Federal jurisdiction. Would you name them?"

"Yes, and it is one of the most all-embracing. Canada has a right to be proud of it. It sets higher standards than have been set for any other country I know. Other countries are taking note of the way Canadian Parliament is ensuring that more workers share in this country's growth."

"It applies to industries which fall under Federal jurisdiction—and may well prove to be a guide for other industries. The Government itself, which is a large employer in its own right, will take the lead by applying the Code's standards to its own federal employees."

"As we said, it sets minimum standards—and I stress that these are minimum, because, of course, a lot of workers already enjoy higher standards than the Code sets."

First, it sets a standard 8 hour day and a 40 hour week, with overtime limited to 8 hours a week, and paid for at time-and-a-half.

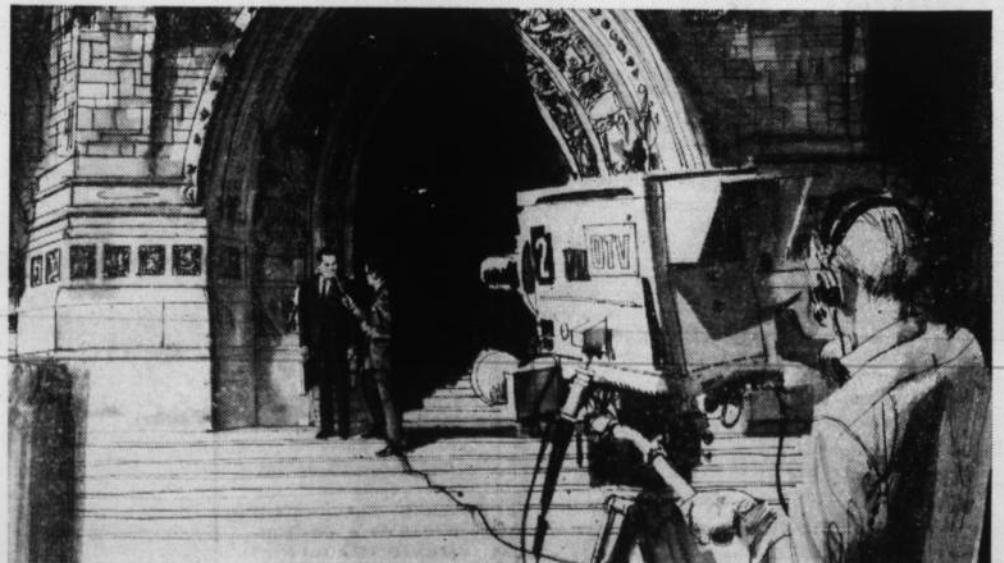

Second, it sets the minimum wage rate for all men and women over 17 years of age at $1.25 an hour.

Next, it provides for two weeks annual vacation with pay, after one year's service; or 4% of wages as vacation pay for those with from 30 days to a year's service.

Finally, it stipulates that each employee shall get eight statutory holidays with pay a year—or get a full day off in lieu of the holiday."

"The Code covers interprovincial or international rail and highway transport, primary fishing where the fishermen work for wages, air transport, radio and TV, shipping, banks, uranium mining, grain elevators, flour and feed mills and warehousing, seed cleaning mills, interprovincial or international pipelines and ferries, interprovincial or international telegraphs and telephones, most Crown corporations and one or two other smaller industries."

If you are not sure whether you are covered by the Canada Labour (Standards) Code, write to Department of Labour, Ottawa.

DOES IT SHINE?

Are you using the right furniture polish for your furniture with a minimum of effort to you? The type and brand of polish that your neighbour uses on her furniture may not be the one you should use.

There are several factors which would determine the polish that you will select. These include the type of finish on your furniture—whether bright or dull; the temperature and humidity in your house, the amount and type of dirt in the air, and the trouble the homemaker wishes to take in caring for the furniture.

So many of the new modern polishes are inexpensive, easy to use, and effective. But if they are wrongly used, you can easily damage your furniture.

There are five main types of furniture polish to consider in the choice of which is best for you. Paste wax is the oldest and perhaps the best known of the polishes. This wax is applied with one cloth, rubbed in with another and buffed with yet another. The disadvantages of paste wax include being troublesome to apply and no cleaning ability. This wax will give a harder more durable gloss than any of the others if you are willing to spend the time and energy applying the wax.

Emulsions of oil and naphtha in the form of creams are easier to apply than paste waxes but still require buffing. They have the added ability of being able to clean but they lack the resistance to water and wear.

Some of the liquid polishes are the same resistance to water as the paste waxes but not the same resistance to wear. These polishes are a combination of wax in a solvent which combines wax polishing with good cleaning ability.

Spray polishes are the newest type and an easy way of applying polish. The two main disadvantages of this type are the difficulty in spraying only the surface you wish to polish and the danger of the cans exploding if placed near the heat. Spray polish generally gives as glossy a polish as liquid waxes but their resistance to water is lower.

Oil polishes are easy to spread and consist usually of a mineral oil. They must be thoroughly buffed and tend to collect dust or finger prints. Oil waxes are normally used on oil finishes.

Silicones have only recently been added to polishes. Harder waxes can now be used because the silicone acts as a lubricant. It also seems to discourage dust particles from clinging.

Most of the damage done to furniture occurs because the homemaker either uses the wrong kind of polish for the furniture finish or she uses the polish too often. Check with a furniture dealer to find out the type of finish you have.

Before you wax your furniture, Europe makes about 80 per cent

ing it with a cloth wrung out from warm water or a mild detergent solution. Paste waxes need only be applied two to four times a year and other types when the gloss has dulled.

Weigh your energy against your time available and decide which type of furniture polish you should use.

Conference

ents in the Senior Citizens Homes. She then spoke of the proposed WI tea towel. After much correspondence it was found to import these pure linen towels from Ireland was not practical. Sales tax and duty would make the cost prohibitive. Mrs. Dunipace had a towel from a Branch in England with her and this with several other souvenirs from the English Branch were made available for the ladies' viewing.

With regard to handicraft, Mrs. Newman said members would have the opportunity of entering tea cloths at the District Conference in Calgary, 1966. These tea cloths are required to carry an original design, preferably western.

Mrs. Newman said she was most interested in Mrs. Hunzinger's report of Champion Women's Institute compiling a history of the Branch. Barons reported its members were commencing a history of their Branch.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion served a turkey dinner in the dining room of the Community Hall.

Mrs. Crowe gave an oral report on education, when the meeting reconvened.

Mrs. Little then gave her report on the recent Biennial Convention in Edmonton. She said she had enjoyed the past two years as Constituency Convener very much. She had learned a lot about Institute work. She had met so many interesting people. She then went on to describe her activities for the past year. She urged everyone to attend Women's Institute conventions whenever possible, as there is so much to be learned, as well as the opportunity to mix with people, share mutual problems and probably pick up some constructive ideas to bring to the home Branch.

Mrs. Newman said she had learned at the Federal Convention of the proposed chairs for the Fathers of Confederation. It is planned that each province provide one chair and the Federal Government will give three. Eaton's of Canada will upholster the chairs. Each chair will have a piece of needlepoint on the back, a gift of the province giving the chair.

Speaking on the subject "Make Alberta More Beautiful" Mrs. Newman said there was a trophy offered and a $25.00 cash award for pictures showing a home, church or public building before landscaping and pictures following the renovation. The prize would be awarded the project showing the greatest achievement. This could be the project of an individual, a Branch, a Constituency or even a District.

Mrs. Newman spoke in detail of scholarships and bursaries that are available and said you may get complete information from Canadian Trust Information Service, Room 204, 160 Eglinton Avenue East, Toronto 12, Ontario.

Mrs. Newman said there was a great need of books in far countries where English is spoken. School books and both fiction and non-fiction can be used. Each book must be wrapped in plastic to prevent mildew, as sometimes the books must wait for transportation in seaports. There will be a depot for the collection of these books opened in Alberta before too long.

A $1,000 scholarship has been set up for someone starting on the final two years in University, majoring in Social Welfare, providing they work in the province two years upon graduation. In case of a tie Women's Institute members' children will be given preference.

Mrs. Newman announced the Provincial President is Mrs. B. L. Warpspe, Mrs. C. L. Alexander, Cayley, is vice-president; Mrs. Quail, Round Hill, secretary. There are 249 Branches in the Province.

Miss Bartman, Home Economist and one of the judges spoke some helpful words concerning handicraft. Some members felt the handicraft list should be revised.

The following are the points awarded the Branches for handicraft and baking: Kirkcaldy: Handicraft, 546; Baking, 425. Barons: Handicraft, 205; Baking, 5. Reid Hill: Handicraft, 17; Baking, 20. Champion: Handicraft, 10; Baking, 59.

Since this is the third year Kirkcaldy has won the shields for both handicraft and baking, the Branch was presented with them to keep. Upon presenting the shields, Mrs. Little congratulated the Branch on its achievements.

Mrs. C. Brown announced that Mrs. Little was once more Constituency Convener and conveners of various standing committees were made known.

Mrs. Slater on behalf of the Barons Women's Institute invited the ladies to Barons for next year's Conference.

CLERICS' CORNER

This week's contributor: Rev. Victor G. Cowell
St. Aldhelm's Anglican Church

"I believe in the Communion of Saints". We say this in our Creed Sunday by Sunday and we assert that all the world over, without regard to nationality, colour, intellect, position, wealth or anything else, all real Christians belong to one family, and are united in spirit with one another. But we mean more than this. Because we believe that when we die the believer in Christ joins the fellowship of the blessed dead — who are not really dead, but are through Christ, living in God's nearer presence — we are sure that our fellowship as Christians is unbroken. We are not only with all Christians on the earth; but we are also one with those Christians who have gone on before through death to the fuller life. We hope that they pray for us; we certainly can remember them with gratitude and thanksgiving. We do not know much about their state, but we are confident that the same Heavenly Father who looks after them looks after us. We are all His redeemed people, and for ever bound to Him in love and loyalty.

Keystone Class

The regular meeting of the Reid Hill W.I. was held Thursday, June 10th, at the home of Mrs. Clifford Love, with Mrs. Percy Myers as assisting hostess. The punctuality draw was won by Mrs. McRoberts.

Mrs. John French, the president was in the chair and conducted the meeting assisted by secretary, Mrs. Jack Marshall. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Kuykendall.

Mrs. French reported on the Constituency conference, held earlier in the week at Champion and Mrs. Earl Deal gave a brief, but very interesting report on the convention held at Edmonton.

Routine business matters were dealt with and the meeting adjourned. A pleasant social period was enjoyed and the serving of a dainty lunch by Mrs. Love and Mrs. Myers concluded the program.
